Finance's Indebtedness to the Plaintiffs

19. In 2003, Finance issued two series of notes (the "Notes") as follows:
- (a) notes in the aggregate amount of £350,000,000 with an interest rate of 8.375% which are repayable in 2015 (the "2015 Notes"); and
 - (b) notes in the aggregate amount of £250,000,000 with an interest rate of 8.875% which are repayable in 2023 (the "2023 Notes").
20. GM US guaranteed Finance's obligations under both the 2015 Notes and the 2023 Notes.
21. The Plaintiffs are the holders of £216,248,000 (approximately 62%) of the outstanding principal amount of the 2015 Notes and £160,450,000 (approximately 64%) of the outstanding principal amount of the 2023 Notes.
22. As a result of their status as holders of Notes issued by Finance, the Plaintiffs are "complainants" within the meaning of section 7 of the Third Schedule of the Companies Act in respect of oppression claims concerning Finance or its affiliates commenced under section 5 of the said Schedule and are "complainants" within the meaning of section 238 of the CBCA in respect of oppression claims concerning GM Canada and its affiliates commenced under section 241 of the CBCA.

The Inter-Corporate Obligations

23. At all material times Finance was a major creditor of both Investments and (directly or indirectly) GM Canada.
24. The ability of Finance to satisfy its obligations under the Notes has been and remains dependent upon the receipt by Finance of amounts owing to it by Investments and GM Canada.

Finance Reduces Paid Up Capital - May 2008

25. In or about May 2008 Macdonald, Michel and Stapleton, as directors of Finance, purported to determine that a portion of the paid up capital of the issued and outstanding common shares of Finance in the amount of $16 million Canadian and $500,000 U.S. was "in excess of the wants" of Finance and that it would be desirable to reduce the paid up capital on the issued and outstanding common shares of Finance by the aggregate amount of $16 million Canadian and $500,000 U.S. and to pay such amounts to GM US in cash as a repayment of capital.
26. In reliance on this purported determination by Macdonald, Michel and Stapleton, GM US as the sole shareholder of Finance resolved on May 22, 2008 that the paid up capital of Finance be reduced by $16 million Canadian and by $500,000 U.S. and that such amounts be paid to GM US. The paid up capital of Finance was subsequently so reduced and Finance paid GM US $16 million Canadian and $500,000 U.S. At this time GM US was to the knowledge of Macdonald, Michel and Stapleton either insolvent or on the brink of insolvency.
27. At the time that Macdonald, Michel and Stapleton purported to determine that it would be desirable for Finance to reduce its paid up capital as referred to in paragraph 25 above, and at the time the payments referred to in paragraph 26 were in fact made, Macdonald, Michel, Stapleton, Finance and GM US knew that Finance was indebted to the holders of the Notes, that GM US would not be able to honour its guarantee obligations to the holders of the Notes in full and that any return of capital to GM US would prejudice Finance's ability to repay its obligations under the Notes and thus be prejudicial to the interests of Finance's creditors including the Plaintiffs.
28. By recommending and supporting a repayment of capital by Finance to GM US, Macdonald, Michel and Stapleton breached the fiduciary duties and duties of care they, as directors, owed to Finance.
29. By recommending and supporting a repayment of capital by Finance to GM US, Michel had an irreconcilable conflict of interest between her role as director of Finance and her role as an executive in GM US's Treasury since GM US controls Finance and was the beneficiary of the repayment of capital.

30. The acts of Macdonald, Michel and Stapleton in recommending and supporting a payment by Finance to GM US of $16 million Canadian and $500,000 U.S. as a purported return of capital, the payment of such amounts by Finance, and the receipt of such amounts by GM US has prejudiced the ability of Finance to repay its obligations under the Notes. Such acts by Macdonald, Michel, Stapleton, Finance and GM US were oppressive, unfairly prejudicial to and unfairly disregarded the interests of Finance and its creditors including the Plaintiffs.

31. As a result of the facts set out in paragraphs 25-30 above, GM US has been or will be unjustly enriched at the expense of Finance and its creditors, there having been an enrichment, a corresponding deprivation and the absence of any juristic reason for the enrichment.

Investments Reduces Paid Up Capital - May 2008

32. In or about May 2008 Macdonald, Michel and Stapleton also purported to determine that a portion of the paid up capital of the issued and outstanding common shares of Investments in the amount of $576,672,670 Canadian was "in excess of the wants" of Investments and that it would be desirable to reduce the paid up capital on the issued and outstanding common shares of Investments by the $576,672,670 Canadian and to pay such amount to GM US in cash as a repayment of capital.

33. In reliance on this purported determination by Macdonald, Michel and Stapleton, GM US as the sole shareholder of Investments resolved on May 22, 2008 that the paid up capital of Investments be reduced by $576,672,670 Canadian and that such amounts be paid to GM US. The paid up capital of Investments was subsequently so reduced and Investments paid GM US $576,672,670 Canadian. At this time GM US was to the knowledge of Macdonald, Michel and Stapleton either insolvent or on the brink of insolvency.

34. Following the above payment by Investments to GM US, the paid up capital of Investments was reduced from $576,672,770 Canadian to $100 Canadian.

35. At the time that Macdonald, Michel and Stapleton purported to determine that it would be desirable for Investments to reduce its paid up capital as referred to in paragraph 32 above, and at the time the payment referred to in paragraph 33 was in fact made, Macdonald, Michel, Stapleton, Finance, Investments and GM US knew that (i) Investments was indebted to Finance, (ii) Finance was indebted to the holders of the Notes (iii) GM US would not be able to honour its guarantee obligations to the holders of the Notes in full and (iv) any return of capital by Investments to GM US would prejudice Investments' ability to repay Finance and in turn prejudice Finance's ability to repay its obligations under the Notes and thus be prejudicial to the interests of Finance's creditors including the Plaintiffs.

36. By recommending and supporting a repayment of capital by Investments to GM US, Macdonald, Michel and Stapleton had an irreconcilable conflict of interest between the duties they owed as officers and directors to Finance and the duties they owed to Investments. Michel's role as an executive in GM US's Treasury posed an additional conflict of interest since GM US controls Finance and was the beneficiary of the repayment of capital.

37. As directors of Finance, a creditor of Investments, Macdonald's, Michel's and Stapleton's duty was to protect the interests of Finance. Instead of causing Finance, as a creditor of Investments, to object to the proposed reduction by Investments of its paid up capital, Macdonald, Michel and Stapleton not only recommended such course of action but caused Investments to implement it. Macdonald, in fact, swore an affidavit in support of a court order pursuant to sections 59 and 60 of the Companies Act in which he failed to disclose the extent of Investments' obligations to Finance, failed to disclose Finance's obligation to the holders of the Notes, and swore that no creditor would be adversely affected or prejudiced by the proposed reduction in the paid up capital of Investments. The plaintiffs plead that Macdonald, Michel and Stapleton breached the fiduciary duty and duty of care they, as directors, owed to Finance.

38. The acts of Macdonald, Michel and Stapleton in recommending, supporting and implementing a payment by Investments to GM US of $576,672,670 Canadian as a purported return of capital, the failure of Finance to object to the proposed reduction in Investments' paid up capital, the payment of such amount by Investments, and the receipt of such amount by GM US has prejudiced the ability of Investments to repay its obligations to Finance and in turn prejudiced the ability of Finance to repay its obligations under the Notes. Such acts by Macdonald, Michel, Stapleton, Finance, Investments and GM US were oppressive, unfairly prejudicial to and unfairly disregarded the interests of Finance and its creditors including the Plaintiffs.

39. As a result of the facts set out in paragraphs 32-38 above, GM US has been or will be unjustly enriched at the expense of Finance and its creditors, there having been an enrichment, a corresponding deprivation and the absence of any juristic reason for the enrichment.

GM Canada Undermines Value of its Obligations to Finance

40. On February 11, 2009, at a time that GM Canada was indebted (directly or indirectly) to Finance, at a time when GM US was insolvent and at a time when GM Canada was approaching the minimum cash reserve levels required to meet its obligations, GM US and GM Canada amended their July 20, 2006 Credit Agreement with a syndicate of lenders. Among other things, the amended Credit Agreement allows GM Canada to guarantee the indebtedness of other entities and provide its assets as collateral security for indebtedness regardless of whether such indebtedness is that of GM Canada or of other entities and regardless of whether such indebtedness is new or pre-existing. By agreeing to the amendment to the Credit Agreement, GM Canada made possible the impairment of its ability to repay the obligations it owes (directly or indirectly) to Finance.

41. As officers and directors of GM Canada, Macdonald and Stapleton were instrumental in conceiving, approving and implementing the course of conduct referred to in paragraph 40 above. Macdonald and Stapleton had an irreconcilable conflict of interest between the duties they owed as officers and directors of Finance and the duties they owed to GM Canada. By supporting and failing to object to the above course of action, Macdonald and Stapleton breached the fiduciary duties and duties of care they, as directors, owed to Finance.

42. The course of conduct undertaken by Macdonald, Stapleton and GM Canada and referred to in paragraphs 40-41 is oppressive, unfairly prejudicial to, and unfairly disregards the interests of Finance and its creditors including the Plaintiffs.

Claim for Relief

43. These parties claim an order providing the following remedies:

- (e) an order pursuant to section 5(3)(h) of the Third Schedule to the Companies Act setting aside the transaction referred to in paragraphs 32-33 above wherein Investments purported to reduce its paid up capital and paid $576,672,670 Canadian to GM US;
- (f) an interlocutory and permanent order pursuant to section 241(a) of the CBCA restraining GM Canada from guaranteeing the obligations of any other entity or from pledging its assets or granting security in respect of the indebtedness of any other entity.

- (h) a declaration that GM US has been unjustly enriched as a result of its receipt of the $576,672,670 Canadian referred to in paragraphs 32-38 above and an order requiring GM US to disgorge such amount to Investments;
- (i) judgment jointly and severally against all of the defendants pursuant to section 5(3)(h) and/or (j) of the Third Schedule to the Companies Act and /or section 241(j) of the CBCA for damages and compensation in an amount to be determined plus interest at the rates prescribed by the Notes;
- (j) costs of this action; and
- (k) such further and other relief as counsel may advise and the court permit.

Attachment to Amended Proof of Claim of Green Hunt Wedlake Inc., Trustee of General Motors Nova Scotia Finance Company, in bankruptcy
Against Motors Liquidation Company f/k/a General Motors Corp., Debtor, Chapter 11 Case No. 09-50026 (REG)

1. Green Hunt Wedlake Inc. ("Claimant") holds a trustee's license under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) ("BIA"). On October 9, 2009 the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia adjudged General Motors Nova Scotia Finance Company ("Finance") bankrupt and issued a Bankruptcy Order on that date pursuant to the BIA appointing the Claimant as trustee of the estate of Finance. A copy of the order issued by the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia on October 9, 2009 is annexed hereto as Exhibit A.

2. As trustee of Finance, the Claimant is an officer of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia and the legal representative of Finance. It has certain duties pursuant to the BIA including the duty to realize on the assets of Finance as much as possible for the benefit of its creditors. Prior to any distribution, a trustee under the BIA reviews proofs of claim filed in the bankruptcy, obtains further information and evidence where required with a view to allowing or disallowing such claims.

3. Finance, incorporated on September 28, 2001 under the Companies Act of Nova Scotia, Canada as an unlimited company, is a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of Motors Liquidation Company f/k/a General Motors Corporation (the "Debtor"). As an "unlimited company" under Nova Scotia corporate law the Debtor, as the sole member of Finance, is liable to contribute to the assets of Finance an amount sufficient for the payment of Finance's debts and liabilities and the costs, charges and expenses of the bankruptcy. See s. 135 of the Companies Act (Nova Scotia), being Chapter 81 of the Revised Statutes of Nova Scotia, 1989, as amended (the "Nova Scotia Companies Act"). Pursuant to the provisions of section 77 of the BIA, the amount which the Debtor is liable to contribute is deemed to be an asset of Finance and a debt payable to the Claimant as Trustee forthwith on the bankruptcy of Finance.

4. As required by the BIA, a representative of Finance has filed with the Claimant a sworn Statement of Affairs showing the particulars of the assets and liabilities of Finance and certain other information required. A copy of the said Statement of Affairs is attached as Exhibit B. Exhibit B shows the total liabilities of Finance as at October 9, 2009 as CDN $1,678,270,910.68. Exhibit B also shows the total assets estimated by Finance to produce CDN $175,887.35 but the Claimant has not as yet determined what amount, if any, net of costs will be realized from these assets.

5. Exhibit B refers to Noteholders having an unsecured claim of CDN $1,088,542,512.01 as at October 9, 2009. These constitute holders of Series 8.375% and 8.875% Notes due 2015 and 2023. According to the records of Finance, these notes were issued pursuant to the terms and conditions of that certain Fiscal and Paying Agency Agreement, dated as of July 10, 2003, among Finance, the Debtor, Deutsche Bank Luxembourg S.A., as fiscal agent, and Banque Général du Luxembourg S.A., as paying agent, (the "Fiscal and Paying Agency Agreement"), pursuant to which Finance issued £350,000,000 in principal amount of 8.375% Guaranteed Notes due December 7, 2015 (the "2015 Notes"), and £250,000,000 in principal amount of 8.875% Guaranteed Notes due July 10, 2023 (the "2023 Notes" and together with the 2015 Notes, the "Notes"). As at October 9, 2009, there is outstanding a total of £374,649,137.75 on the 2015 Notes and £277,750,900.61 on the 2023 Notes. The total outstanding on these notes, when converted at the exchange rate on October 9, 2009 of 1.66852 results in there being outstanding CDN $1,088,542,512.01 as shown on Exhibit B. A copy of the Fiscal and Paying Agency Agreement is annexed hereto as Exhibit C. Certain provisions of the Fiscal and Paying Agency Agreement were amended at a meeting of the holders of each series of the Notes held on June 25, 2009. Annexed as Exhibit D are: the Notice of Meetings of the holders of each series of the Notes; the Extraordinary Resolution containing certain amendments to the Fiscal and Paying Agency Agreement; the Voting Record of the June 25, 2009 meeting of the holders of the 2015 Notes; the Voting Record of the June 25, 2009 meeting of the holders of the 2023 Notes; copies of the voting cards (Voting Card 1 for the holders of the 2015 Notes, Voting Card 2 for the holders of the 2015 Notes, Voting Card 1 for the holders of the 2023 Notes and Voting Card 2 for the holders of the 2023 Notes) evidencing the votes taken at the June 25, 2009 meeting; and the Scrutineer's Report of Passing of Extraordinary Resolution.

6. Finance and the Debtor entered into certain currency swap arrangements which give rise to certain liabilities of Finance (the "Swap Liability"). General Motors LLC, as successor to the Debtor, has filed a claim in the bankruptcy of Finance claiming a Swap Liability of US $564,493,957.00 or CDN $589,292,176.53, which is the amount shown in Exhibit B, converted at the exchange rate of 1.04393. Copies of the swap agreements received by the Claimant from General Motors LLC are attached as Exhibit E.

7. As a result of the foregoing, the Claimant claims payment from the Debtor the full amount of the liabilities of Finance disclosed in Exhibit B, namely CDN $1,678,270,910.68 which, when converted to US Dollars at the date of the bankruptcy of Finance at the exchange rate of 0.957919, amounts to US $1,607,647,592.49.

8. This Proof of Claim also makes claim to all other amounts due under or relating to any other liabilities of Finance for which the Debtor is liable under the Nova Scotia Companies Act and BIA including, without limitation, any additional or increased amounts under or in connection with the 2015 Notes and the 2023 Notes and/or the Swap Liability (such other amounts together with the claims related to the 2015 Notes and the 2023 Notes and the Swap Liability are collectively referred to as the "Claims").

9. In addition to the foregoing, the Debtor was and is now indebted and liable to the Claimant for the following unliquidated amounts:

- a. All other amounts due or relating to the Claims, including, but not limited to principal, premiums, interest, and interest accruing after June 1, 2009 (the "Petition Date");
- b. Claimant's fees, costs, expenses, disbursements, and advances (including without limitation, compensation, fees, expenses and disbursements of Claimant's agents and counsel);

GM Statement on Auto Industry Restructuring

2009-03-30

Add This

Today's announcement by President Obama begins a new era for the U.S. auto industry. It also marks a defining moment in the history of General Motors.

The U.S. Treasury will provide working capital financing for GM for 60 days while GM completes a more accelerated and aggressive restructuring to put the company on sound long-term financial footing. We understand the historic opportunity this presents, and we are fully committed to successfully completing the reinvention of GM.

As President Obama said today, the success of this reinvention is vital for GM, for the U.S. and global economies, and for the millions of employees, suppliers, dealers, retirees and others who depend on the company.

During the next 60 days, GM will address the tough issues to improve the long-term viability of the company, including the restructuring of the financial obligations to the bond holders, unions and other stakeholders. Our strong preference is to complete this restructuring out of court. However, GM will take whatever steps are necessary to successfully restructure the company, which could include a court-supervised process.

The men and women of GM, including our dealers, suppliers and other key partners, know what we must do to accomplish this task. We are fully committed to making this successful. We owe that to the GM community, to our customers, and to the U.S. taxpayers, who are providing support during this exceptionally challenging time.

Quotes attributable to Fritz Henderson, GM CEO

“The U.S. Treasury has said that it strongly believes that a substantial restructuring will lead to a viable GM. Over the next 60 days, we will work around the clock, with all parties, to meet the aggressive requirements that have been set by the Task Force, and to make the fundamental and lasting changes necessary to reinvent GM for the long-term.”

“We have significant challenges ahead of us, and a very tight timeline. I am confident that the GM team will succeed, and that a stronger, healthier GM will play an important role in revitalizing America’s economy and re-establishing its technology leadership and energy independence.”

“The administration has made it clear that it expects GM to expand and accelerate its restructuring efforts. I want the American people to know that we understand and accept this guidance. The road is tough, but the ultimate goal – a leaner, stronger, viable GM – is one we share.”

G.M. Plan Gets Support From Key Bondholders

Fatrizio Costantini for The New York Times

Tony Ptak of the United Automobile Workers voted Thursday in Warren, Mich., on G.M.'s concession plan as the automaker's bondholders were offered a larger owner stake than the union.

DETROIT — As General Motors moved closer to a bankruptcy filing, possibly early next week, attention on Thursday turned again to the bondholders, the most important group that the company has yet to win over for its efforts to start fresh.

Early Thursday, G.M. proposed a deal in which bondholders would receive up to a 25 percent stake — a bigger share than G.M. offered the autoworkers union — if they do not oppose its bankruptcy reorganization, and then said that a group representing many of the largest bondholders had accepted the offer.

The proposal came as administration officials and G.M. began to discuss how the carmaker would look once it emerged from a court reorganization. The company is expected to seek bankruptcy protection by Monday, the deadline set by the Obama administration to restructure outside bankruptcy.

deadline for other bondholders to support the plan. In addition to an ad hoc committee that supports the G.M. plan, which represents about 20 percent of G.M.'s debt, people with knowledge of the discussions said a second group, with about 30 percent of G.M.'s debt, was in talks with the Treasury.

Administration officials said they considered the development positive. While the officials said there was no specific threshold for approval by the bondholders, a person briefed on the matter said that G.M. was seeking support from investors holding about 50 percent of G.M.'s $27 billion in bond debt.

G.M. and the Treasury will re-examine the results after 5 p.m. on Saturday to gauge support before deciding how to proceed. Administration officials said Thursday that 15 percent of bondholders approved the first debt-for-equity swap. (G.M. had wanted 90 percent.) With that group added to the 20 percent represented by the ad hoc committee, which had opposed the earlier offer, officials believe they have a good starting point.

In a regulatory filing, G.M. filled in many of the details of how it would look once it completed its reorganization, devised under the eye of the Treasury Department. G.M. said the government, which is to provide bankruptcy financing of about $50 billion, initially would hold 72.5 percent of G.M., with the United Automobile Workers union receiving 17.5 percent, and bondholders receiving 10 percent.

But the percentages held by the bondholders and the union could conceivably be larger because each are being offered warrants in the new G.M., which would be created in bankruptcy.

Under the terms of the plan, bondholders would initially receive 10 percent. They could then exercise their warrants for an additional 7.5 percent when the new G.M. rises to about $15 billion in value. The second set of warrants for the final 7.5 percent would be exercisable when new G.M. rises to $30 billion in value.

The union would initially receive a 17.5 percent stake to finance a health care trust for its retirees. It has also received warrants to raise that holding to 20 percent — but those warrants are exercisable only if new G.M.'s value hits $75 billion.

Once the union and bondholders achieve their full stakes, the government's share would drop to 55 percent.

The hope is to create a new G.M. by late August, people with knowledge of the matter said.

During a briefing on Thursday, administration officials said they expected that G.M. would emerge from bankruptcy in 60 to 90 days, but would probably not be a publicly traded company until sometime later, possibly after a public offering. Until then, there would not be a ready market for the equity holdings of former bondholders and others.

The administration officials said that G.M.'s balance sheet going forward could make a $15 billion market capitalization possible within a relatively short period of time, but did not offer details on how its value would rise to that level. The current market capitalization, said an administration official close to the negotiations, reflected a capital structure that was unacceptable.

G.M.'s current market capitalization is about $683.8 million; it was close to $22 billion a

Washington, Ottawa bet US$60-billion GM will rise again

In this story:

Data delayed at least 15 min

Canadians could stay shareholders in General Motors Corp. until as long as 2018 in an unprecedented and risky cross-border rescue of the ailing automaker by political leaders who insist not helping the company would have triggered an economic collapse of untold proportions. Reuters

Nicolas Van Praet, Financial Post • Monday, Jun. 1, 2009

Canadians could stay shareholders in General Motors Corp. until as long as 2018 in an unprecedented and risky cross-border rescue of the ailing automaker by political leaders who insist not helping the company would have triggered an economic collapse of untold proportions.

The governments of the United States, Canada and Ontario Monday announced they would collectively pledge US$60-billion in loans to GM to help the bankrupt company reinvent itself over the next several years. Canadian taxpayers alone will contribute US$9.5-billion to the manufacturer, split two-thirds federally and one-third provincially. Part of the money will let GM pay its underfunded pension liabilities.

"GM and its stakeholders have produced a viable, achievable plan that will give this iconic American company a chance to rise again," U.S. President Barack Obama said. "Executing this plan will require a substantial amount of money that only a government can provide."

The aid comes one month after Canadian lawmakers pledged $3.8-billion in a separate aid package for Chrysler LLC. Both companies are now in bankruptcy protection in the United States after going broke from years of mismanagement and a final crippling blow dealt by the global financial meltdown.

"It's not a normal call," Prime Minister Stephen Harper said in justifying the aid. "It's not just that the companies are huge. It's that we are faced with the unusual situation where for a huge part of the industry it's all or nothing. We either save our part of it or we have zero."

The U.S. government of George W. Bush first decided to help GM and Chrysler, Mr. Harper noted. He said Canada's choice was to join the United States in offering aid to the companies or see their Canadian manufacturing presence pulled out of the country.

"Without Canadian money in the game, we would be out of the game," Ontario Premier Dalton McGuinty said. "If you think this side's dark, take a look at the other side and understand the full economic consequences of that."

Letting GM fail in Canada and leave the country would trigger six-figure job losses very quickly as suppliers and every company tied to GM absorbed the effects, Mr. Harper said. "That is just not feasible for our economy."

It would flatten auto cities like Oshawa, St. Catharines and Ingersoll, Mr. McGuinty added. And it would hurt Canada's other three automakers not asking for aid.

Critics countered that taxpayers are the biggest losers in the rescue, a third of whom don't even have company or union pensions of their own.

The cost of helping the two automakers to every Canadian who will likely buy a new vehicle other than a GM or Chrysler this year would in fact be about $14,705 per person, enough to buy new small car, according to the Frontier Centre, a think-tank based in Winnipeg. Seen another way, the money spent on GM and Chrysler represents half of all the tax profitable businesses will pay in Canada in 2009, said Frontier research director Mark Milke.

"In the bizarre new world created by Ottawa and Washington D.C., healthy companies — hello Ford, Toyota, and other non-troubled automakers and their employees — are punished due to General Motors and Chrysler," Mr. Milke said. "The latter gave away the farm on pay, pensions and health benefits and apparently have managers, employees, and retirees who now expect others to pay for such profligacy... As if there exists a right to the paycheques of others."

Never before have the Canadian and U.S. governments staged an industrial intervention of this size.

Under the plan, Ottawa and Queen's Park would receive 12% of the common shares of a revamped GM as well as about US$1.7-billion in debt and preferred stock. It will have the right to name one director on GM's 13-member board.

The governments will sell their stake over time under favourable market conditions.

After a period of private ownership that would stabilize GM with state aid, the automaker will become a public company again in 2010, a senior government official said. The federal and Ontario governments will sell a minimum of 5% of their GM shares per year with a goal of shedding its ownership stake completely by 2018.

Federal officials acknowledged it is a massive bet on an auto company that has been shedding market share for years. But they said the government is not looking at it in strict profit-loss terms.

"We're not going into the deal because we want to play the stock market with taxpayer money," a senior federal official said. "We think there are very important benefits."

Under the deal hammered out with GM's Canadian arm, the automaker must maintain a 19% share of GM's combined Canada-United States production capacity. GM will also commit to invest in a new engine module for its St. Catharines motor factory, spend $2.2-billion through 2016 on capital investments in its Canadian plants, and another $1-billion on research and development.

No specific job level requirements were set. GM has said it will employ barely 5,500 people in Canada by 2014.

GM's Canadian and U.S. unions have both agreed to concessions to help the automaker cut costs, a key condition of the government aid. A slight majority of GM's U.S. bondholders have also agreed to a sweetened offer that would give them a 10% initial stake in the company, plus warrants for another 15%.

A last-minute deal was struck with a group of bondholders suing GM Canada that helped the automaker avoid a bankruptcy protection filing in Canada. Some 84% of 240 GM dealers in Canada whose franchise agreements are being terminated also agreed to payout terms, GM said.

"This is a turnaround story," GM North America President Troy Clarke said in an interview with the National Post. "And it's got that drama with it."

GM Canada bondholders feared public reprisal

JACQUIE McNISH AND SHAWN MCCARTHY

OTTAWA — From Tuesday's Globe and Mail Published on Tuesday, Jun. 02, 2009 12:00AM EDT Last updated on Wednesday, Jun. 03, 2009 4:06AM EDT

It took the threat of public criticism by the Prime Minister to convince bondholders to approve an early morning deal yesterday that allowed General Motors of Canada Ltd. GM-N to avoid the expense and uncertainty of a Canadian court proceeding.

According to people familiar with the discussions, holders of about $1.3-billion of bonds issued by a Nova Scotia-based finance arm of General Motors were the last holdouts to the company's plan to restructure its Canadian operations outside of court.

After weeks of what insiders described as sometimes stormy negotiations in Toronto and over conference calls, a majority of mostly U.S.-based funds were still refusing by Sunday to accept a company offer that sources said would pay them about 33 cents for every dollar owed. Some of the largest investors included U.S. funds such as Aurelius Capital Partners and Appaloosa Investment Ltd., which specialize in buying distressed company assets on the bet that they can profit from corporate makeovers.

Unable to win over the recalcitrant investors, sources said GM Canada officials called for help. Their plea went to Ottawa. Could the government help break the stalemate?

The answer came at shortly after 8 p.m. ET Sunday, when the government announced that Prime Minister Stephen Harper, Industry Minister Tony Clement and Ontario Premier Dalton McGuinty would be speaking at 1 p.m. yesterday in Toronto. No public explanation was offered for the news conference. Privately, however, sources said General Motors officials and their advisers worked the phones through the night to warn the investors that the notice meant the Prime Minister was preparing to single out the bondholders for failing to support a bailout of the troubled auto maker.

"We told the bondholders that the Prime Minister of Canada was going to stand up before the country and say that a reasonable corporate solution had failed and the Canadian operations had landed in bankruptcy proceedings because of the bondholders," said one person involved in the discussions.

Adding pressure on the investors, GM Canada's lawyers arranged a hearing with a Superior Court of Ontario judge yesterday morning for a potential filing to place the Canadian operations in bankruptcy court protection under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act (CCAA). If the bondholders had not acquiesced by 6 a.m. ET yesterday, the company would have filed for court protection in Toronto under the CCAA.

The deadline was set in stone because U.S. President Barack Obama was set to speak yesterday morning to announce the details of GM's bankruptcy filing in Washington.

"We went right to the 6 a.m. deadline before we had the support we needed," said another person involved.

Last month, President Obama sent a cold blast through capital markets when he publicly remonstrated Chrysler Corp. bondholders for failing to support a bailout of the auto maker that also called for the investors to give up about 67 per cent of the value of their holdings. Since then, most of the Chrysler bondholders have agreed to approve the tough terms.

A spokesperson for the GM Canada bondholders declined to comment. According to an 8-K filing by General Motors to the Securities and Exchange Commission, a majority of holders of bonds issued by General Motors Nova Scotia Finance Co. have agreed to a plan that will pay them 33 cents on the dollar for their bonds.

The bondholders' approval is an important victory for General Motors and officials on Washington's auto task force who are leading the ambitious strategy to overhaul the auto sector. U.S. officials are seeking to quickly pull the Detroit parent out of U.S. bankruptcy court. The aggressive timetable would not have been possible if the Canadian operations had become entangled in court proceedings.

Under Canadian law, creditors can have more clout than their U.S. counterparts, which sometimes means that bankruptcy proceedings take longer and are more unpredictable.

(b) Intercompany Loan. Upon the approval of the Extraordinary Resolution at the Meeting and the payment by the Company and the Paying Agent of the Consent Fee to each of the Holders in accordance therewith, each Holder waives all (and shall cease to have any) rights and claims against the Company in respect of the Loan Agreements (as defined below), including with respect to any compromise or settlement of the loans thereunder, and such Holder's rights in the Loan Agreements, and each Holder hereby releases and discharges GM Canada (and its past and present officers, directors and employees), Neil Macdonald, John Stapleton, Mercedes Michel and Maurita Sutedja (and their respective heirs, administrators and assigns) from all claims and demands whatsoever, presently known or unknown, which the Holders ever had, now have or may hereafter have against them by reason of claims and demands arising from or in connection with those certain loan agreements between the Company and GM Canada each dated as of July 10, 2003 and pursuant to which GM Canada borrowed from the Company the sum of five hundred fifty-five million, eight hundred sixty thousand Canadian dollars (C$555,860,000), and the sum of seven hundred seventy-eight million, two hundred four thousand Canadian dollars (C$778,204,000), respectively (collectively, the "Loan Agreements"), provided that nothing contained in this Agreement shall preclude the Holders from pursuing any claim in respect of the parties and claims otherwise released in this paragraph in the event that the payment of the Consent Fee is successfully challenged by any person in a future proceeding. Furthermore, in the event that the payment of the Consent Fee is successfully challenged by any person in a future proceeding and, as a result, an amount equal to the Consent Fee has been repaid, the settlement between the Company and GM Canada of the amount owing under the Loan Agreements as contemplated by this Transaction shall be null and void and the full amount owing under the Loan Agreements as of the date hereof shall be immediately due and payable according to their terms as they exist as of the date hereof.

(c) Other Claims. Upon the approval of the Extraordinary Resolution at the Meeting and the payment by the Company and the Paying Agent of the Consent Fee to each of the Holders in accordance therewith, with respect to any other claim it may have against the Canadian Entities or the Guarantor in its capacity as a holder of the Notes, each Holder covenants and agrees not to pursue any claim it may have other than in connection with the advancement of its claim under the Guarantee, the advancement of its claim against GM Nova Scotia in respect of the Notes and the Deficiency Claim (each as defined below). Nothing contained in this Agreement shall preclude the Holder from pursuing any other claim it may have against the Canadian Entities or the Guarantor or any of the other debtors in the Chapter 11 Cases in the event that the payment of the Consent Fee is successfully challenged by any person in a future proceeding. For purposes of this Agreement, the "Guarantee" shall mean that certain guarantee of the

(e) Legal Costs. The defendants in the Nova Scotia Proceeding release and waive any claim against the Holders for fees and costs related to that proceeding.

6. Stipulations and Acknowledgements.

(a) Acknowledgement of Deficiency Claim and Guarantee Claim. Each of the Parties hereto hereby expressly acknowledges, agrees and confirms that nothing contained in this Agreement is in any way intended to, nor shall it in any way operate to, directly or indirectly, limit, waive, impair or restrict, any rights, interests, remedies or claims (whether at law or in equity, and whether now or hereafter existing) which any Holder may have against, or to which any Holder is due or owed from, the Company in respect of the Notes or the Guarantor in respect of the Guarantee Claim or the Deficiency Claim (as defined below). Each of the Company and the Guarantor hereby expressly acknowledges, agrees and confirms that (i) the Deficiency Claim is a valid and enforceable claim of the Company and shall be enforceable against the Guarantor as allowed pre-petition general unsecured claims (the "Allowed Claims") to the fullest extent permitted under applicable laws, (ii) the Notes are valid and enforceable claims of the Holders and shall be enforceable against the Company in their full amount, and (iii) the Guarantee Claim is a valid and enforceable claim of the Holders and shall be enforceable against the Guarantor in the Chapter 11 Cases as Allowed Claims to the fullest extent permitted under applicable laws.

(b) Guarantor Insolvency Claims. The Company and Guarantor stipulate and acknowledge as follows:

(i) forthwith after execution of this Agreement, the Company shall provide the Holders with a consent to a bankruptcy order pursuant to the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada), which shall be executed by the duly authorized officers and directors of the Company in form satisfactory to the Holders. The Holders are hereby authorized for and on behalf of the Company to add to the executed consent the court file number for the application for the bankruptcy order once issued by the relevant court, and proceed to obtain the bankruptcy order. GMCL agrees to provide all necessary funding to the trustee in bankruptcy of the Company as may be required for it to administer the estate and to fully advance the Deficiency Claim (defined below) in the bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings of the Guarantor, including the payment of a retainer in

(iii) the trustee in bankruptcy of the Company would and shall be entitled to a general unsecured claim for contribution for any amounts unpaid to the Company's creditors, namely the amount outstanding under the Notes, the Swap Liability (defined below) and any other liabilities (collectively, a "Deficiency Claim"), in the bankruptcy and insolvency proceedings of the Guarantor;

(iv) for greater certainty, the Consent Fee payment does not reduce, limit or impair the Notes, the Guarantee Claim or the Deficiency Claim;

(v) the Guarantor confirms that its only claim against the Company is the Swap Liability. If for any reason any portion of the Deficiency Claim is disallowed, the Guarantor agrees that the Swap Liability is subordinated to the prior, indefeasible payment in full of the Notes. In any event, any and all other undisclosed indebtedness, claims, liabilities or obligations of the Company to the Guarantor other than the Swap Liability are subordinated to the prior, indefeasible payment in full of the Notes. To the extent of the subordination provided for herein, the Guarantor agrees that should it receive any payments from the Company or a trustee in bankruptcy of the Company, it will hold such payment in trust and immediately pay over such amounts to the paying agent for the Notes;

(vi) the Guarantor shall not assert any right of set-off in respect of the Deficiency Claim; and

(vii) the Guarantor agrees and covenants that it will not take any action or assert any position inconsistent with this Section 6 and, if called upon by the Holders, will confirm its agreement with the positions confirmed herein in writing or at a court hearing as reasonably requested by the Holders.

For purposes of this Agreement, "Swap Liability" shall mean the obligations of the Company to the Guarantor, under currency swap arrangements between the Guarantor and the Company.

7. Non-Public Information. The Holders hereby acknowledge that: (i) each of the Company and the Guarantor may be, and each Holder is proceeding on the assumption that the Company and the Guarantor are, in possession of material, non-public information concerning themselves and their respective direct and indirect subsidiaries (the "Information") which is not or may not be known to the Holders and that neither the Company nor the Guarantor has disclosed to the Holders; (ii) each Holder is voluntarily assuming all risks associated with the Transactions and expressly warrants and represents that (x) neither the Company nor the Guarantor has made, and except as expressly provided in this Agreement, each Holder disclaims the existence of or its reliance on, any representation by the Company or the Guarantor concerning the Company, the Guarantor or the Notes and (y) except as expressly provided in this Agreement, it is not relying on any disclosure or non-disclosure made or not made, or the completeness thereof, in connection with or arising out of the Transactions, and therefore has no claims against the Company or the Guarantor with respect thereto; (iii) if any such claim may exist, each Holder, recognizing its disclaimer of reliance and reliance by the Company and the Guarantor on such disclaimer as a condition to entering into the Transactions, covenants and agrees not to assert it against the Company, the Guarantor or any of their respective officers, directors, shareholders, partners, representatives, agents or affiliates; and (iv) neither the Company nor the Guarantors shall have any liability, and each Holder waives and releases any claim that such Holder might have against the Company, the Guarantor or any of their respective officers, directors, shareholders, partners, representatives, agents and affiliates whether under applicable securities law or otherwise, based on the knowledge, possession or nondisclosure by the Company or the Guarantors to each Holder of the Information. Each Holder further represents and acknowledges that it has received and reviewed (a) a copy of the prospectus, dated April 27, 2009, as amended and supplemented to date (or if resident in Canada, a copy of the Canadian offering memorandum dated April 27, 2009 which incorporates the prospectus, as amended and supplemented to date), relating to the offers by the Company and the Guarantor to exchange certain series of securities, including the Notes, which includes and incorporates by reference material public information concerning the Company and the Guarantors and (b) the Form 8-K filed by the Guarantor on May 28, 2009 relating to the proposed sale by the Guarantor of substantially all of its assets pursuant to Section 363(b) of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code.

8. Specific Performance. Each of the Parties hereto recognizes and acknowledges that a breach by any of the Parties hereto of any covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement will cause the other Parties to sustain damages for which such Parties would not have an adequate remedy at law for money damages, and therefore each Party hereto agrees that in the event of any such breach the other Parties shall be entitled to the remedy of specific performance of such covenants and agreements and injunctive and other equitable relief in addition to any other remedy to which such Parties may be entitled, at law or in equity.

9. Remedies Cumulative. All rights, powers and remedies provided under this Agreement or otherwise available in respect hereof at law or in equity shall be cumulative and not alternative, and the exercise of any right, power or remedy thereof by any Party shall not preclude the simultaneous or later exercise of any other such right, power or remedy by such Party.

10. Effectiveness; Amendments. This Agreement shall not become effective and binding on a Party unless and until a counterpart signature page to this Agreement has been executed and delivered by such Party. Except as otherwise provided herein, once effective, this Agreement may not be modified, amended or supplemented except in a writing signed by each of the Parties hereto.

11. No Waiver. The failure of any Party hereto to exercise any right, power or remedy provided under this Agreement or otherwise available in respect hereof at law or in equity, or to insist upon compliance by any other Party hereto with its obligations hereunder, and any custom or practice of the Parties at variance with the terms hereof, shall not constitute a waiver by such Party of its right to exercise any such or other right, power or remedy or to demand such compliance.

12. No Admission. Neither this Agreement nor the settlement contained herein, nor any act performed or document executed pursuant to or in furtherance of this Agreement or the settlement: (a) is or may be deemed to be or may be used as an admission of, or evidence of, the validity of any claims released pursuant to Section 5 above, or of any wrongdoing or liability of or damage by any of the Parties hereto or their directors; or (b) is or may be deemed to be or may be used as an admission of, or evidence of, any fault or omission of any of the Parties hereto or their respective directors in any civil, criminal or administrative proceeding in any court, administrative proceeding in any court, administrative agency or other tribunal. The Parties and the Released Persons may file this Agreement and Exhibits in any action that may be brought against them in order to support a defense or counterclaim based on principles of res judicata, collateral estoppel, release, good faith settlement, judgment bar or reduction, or any other theory of claim preclusion or issue preclusion or similar defense or counterclaim.

13. Governing Law; Jurisdiction. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York, regardless of the laws that might otherwise govern under applicable principles of conflict of laws of the State of New York. The Parties hereby irrevocably and unconditionally submit to the jurisdiction of any federal or state court located within the borough of Manhattan of the City, County and State of New York over any dispute for purposes of any action, suit or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated hereby. Each party irrevocably waives any objection it may have to the venue of any action, suit or proceeding brought in such court or to the convenience of the forum.

15. Representation by Counsel. Each Party acknowledges that it has been represented by counsel in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Accordingly, any rule of law or any legal decision that would provide any Party with a defense to the enforcement of the terms of this Agreement against such Party based upon lack of legal counsel shall have no application and is expressly waived.

16. Consideration. It is hereby acknowledged by the Parties that, other than the agreements, covenants, representations and warranties of the Parties, as more particularly set forth herein, no consideration shall be due or paid to the Company for their agreement to use their commercially reasonable efforts to consummate the Transactions and the Extraordinary Resolutions in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

19. Several, Not Joint, Obligations. The agreements, representations and obligations of the Parties under this Agreement are, in all respects, several and not joint.

21. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which shall constitute one and the same Agreement. Delivery of an executed signature page of this Agreement by facsimile or e-mail shall be as effective as delivery of a manually executed signature page of this Agreement.

22. No Third-Party Beneficiaries. Unless expressly stated herein, this Agreement shall be solely for the benefit of the Parties, and no other person or entity shall be a third party beneficiary hereof.

23. Severability. Any provision of this Agreement which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

24. Additional Parties. Without in any way limiting the provisions hereof, additional holders of the Notes may elect to become Parties by executing and delivering to the Company a counterpart hereof. Such additional holder shall become a party to this Agreement as a Holder in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the Parties has caused this Agreement to be executed and delivered by its duly authorized officer as of the date first above written.

For the 2015 and 2023 Notes (each series voting separately)

RESOLVES by special quorum an Extraordinary Resolution in accordance with the proviso to paragraph 5 of Schedule 4 of the Fiscal and Paying Agency Agreement to authorize and direct the addition of a new provision at the end of, and forming part of, Condition 6 of Schedule 1 of the Fiscal and Paying Agency Agreement, which also forms a part of the Global Notes representing the 2015 Notes and the 2023 Notes, as follows:

"Certain Claims

Upon the approval of the Extraordinary Resolution at the Meeting and the payment by the Company and the Paying Agent of the Consent Fee to each of the Noteholders in accordance therewith, each Noteholder hereby releases and discharges the defendants in the Nova Scotia Proceeding (and the past and/or present directors, officers, employees, partners, insurers, co-insurers, controlling shareholders, attorneys, advisers, consultants, accountants or auditors, personal or legal representatives, predecessors, successors, parents, subsidiaries, divisions, joint ventures, assigns, spouses, heirs, related and/or affiliated entities of each of them) from all claims and demands that are raised in the proceeding in the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia titled Aurelius Capital Partners, LP v. General Motors Corporation et al, Court File No. HFX No. 308066 (the "Nova Scotia Proceeding"), and agrees to discontinue the Nova Scotia Proceeding on a without costs basis. Nothing contained in this Extraordinary Resolution shall preclude any Noteholder from pursuing any of the claims raised in the Nova Scotia Proceeding against any of the Canadian Entities or the Guarantor or any of the other debtors in the Chapter 11 Cases in the event that the payment of the Consent Fee is successfully challenged by any person in a future proceeding and, as a result, an amount equal to the Consent Fee has been repaid; provided, that, this Extraordinary Resolution precludes each Noteholder from pursuing any of the claims raised in the Nova Scotia Proceeding against any of Neil Macdonald, John Stapleton, Mercedes Michel and Maurita Sutedja (and their respective heirs, administrators and assigns) in the event that the payment of the Consent Fee is successfully challenged by any person in a future proceeding.

Upon the approval of the Extraordinary Resolution at the Meeting and the payment by the Company and the Paying Agent of the Consent Fee to each of the Noteholders in accordance therewith, each Noteholder waives all (and shall cease to have any) rights and claims against the Company in respect of the Loan Agreements (as defined below), including with respect to any compromise or settlement of the loans thereunder, and such Noteholder's rights in the Loan Agreements, and each Noteholder hereby releases and discharges GM Canada (and its past and present officers, directors and employees), Neil Macdonald, John Stapleton, Mercedes Michel and Maurita Sutedja (and their respective heirs, administrators and assigns) from all claims and demands whatsoever, presently known or unknown, which the Noteholders ever had, now have or may hereafter have against them by reason of claims and demands arising from or in connection with those certain loan agreements between the Company and GM Canada each dated as of July 10, 2003 and pursuant to which GM Canada borrowed from the Company the sum of five hundred fifty-five million, eight hundred sixty thousand Canadian dollars (C$555,860,000), and the sum of seven hundred seventy-eight million, two hundred four thousand Canadian dollars (C$778,204,000), respectively (collectively, the "Loan Agreements"), provided that nothing contained in this Extraordinary Resolution shall preclude the Noteholders from pursuing any claim in respect of the parties and claims otherwise released in this paragraph in the event that the payment of the Consent Fee is successfully challenged by any person in a future proceeding and, as a result, an amount equal to the Consent Fee has been repaid. Furthermore, in the event that the payment of the Consent Fee is successfully challenged by any person in a future proceeding, and, as a result, an amount equal to the Consent Fee has been repaid, the settlement between the Company and GM Canada of the amount owing under the Loan Agreements as contemplated by this Transaction shall be null and void and the full amount owing under the Loan Agreements as of the date hereof shall be immediately due and payable according to their terms as they exist as of the date hereof.

Upon the approval of the Extraordinary Resolution at the Meeting and the payment by the Company and the Paying Agent of the Consent Fee to each of the Noteholders in accordance therewith, with respect to any other claim it may have against the Canadian Entities or the Guarantor in its capacity as a holder of the Notes, the Noteholder covenants and agrees not to pursue any claim it may have other than in connection with the advancement of its claim under the Guarantee, the advancement of its claim against GM Nova Scotia in respect of the Notes and the Deficiency Claim (each as defined below). Nothing contained in this Extraordinary Resolution shall preclude the Noteholder from pursuing any other claim it may have against the Canadian Entities or the Guarantor or any of the other debtors in the Chapter 11 Cases in the event that the payment of the Consent Fee is successfully challenged by any person in a future proceeding. For purposes of this Extraordinary Resolution, the "Guarantee" shall mean that certain guarantee of the Notes by the Guarantor included in the Fiscal and Paying Agency Agreement and the Notes.

Nothing contained in this Extraordinary Resolution is in any way intended to, nor shall it in any way operate to, directly or indirectly, limit, waive, impair or restrict, any rights, interests, remedies or claims (whether at law or in equity, and whether now or hereafter existing) which any Noteholder may have against, or to which any Noteholder is due or owed from, the Company in respect of the Notes or the Guarantor in respect of the Guarantee Claim or the Deficiency Claim (as such terms are defined in the Lock-up Agreement). It is hereby expressly acknowledged, agreed and confirmed that that (i) the Deficiency Claim is a valid and enforceable claim of the Company and shall be enforceable against the Guarantor as allowed pre-petition general unsecured claims (the "Allowed Claims") to the fullest extent permitted under applicable laws, (ii) the Notes are valid and enforceable claims to the Noteholders and shall be enforceable against the Company in their full amount, and (iii) the Guarantee Claim is a valid and enforceable claim of the Noteholders and shall be enforceable against the Guarantor as Allowed Claims to the fullest extent permitted under applicable laws.

For purposes of clarity, it is understood and agreed that nothing contained in this Extraordinary Resolution shall: (i) release in any respect whatsoever any claim against the Company on the Notes or any claim against the Guarantor on the Guarantee, or (ii) preclude a Noteholder from pursuing any claim it may have against the Guarantor or any of the other debtors in the Chapter 11 Cases or any other Party that is not based on such Holder's ownership of Notes.

The Consent Fee payment does not reduce, limit or impair the Notes, the Guarantee Claim or the Deficiency Claim.

The Guarantor confirms that its only claim against the Company is the Swap Liability. If for any reason any portion of the Deficiency Claim is disallowed, the Guarantor agrees that the Swap Liability is subordinated to the prior, indefeasible payment in full of the Notes. In any event, any and all other undisclosed indebtedness, claims, liabilities or obligations of the Company to the Guarantor other than the Swap Liability are subordinated to the prior, indefeasible payment in full of the Notes. To the extent of the subordination provided for herein, the Guarantor agrees that should it receive any payments from the Company or a trustee in bankruptcy of the Company, it will hold such payment in trust and immediately pay over such amounts to the paying agent for the Notes. For purposes of this Extraordinary Resolution, "Swap Liability" shall mean the obligations of the Company to the Guarantor, under currency swap arrangements between the Guarantor and the Company.

The Guarantor shall not assert any right of set-off in respect of the Deficiency Claim.

RESOLVES by special quorum an Extraordinary Resolution in accordance with Schedule 4 of the Fiscal and Paying Agency Agreement to pay, subject to the approval of the foregoing Extraordinary Resolution by the requisite Noteholders, an amount equal to £366.46 per £1,000 of principal amount of the 2015 Notes outstanding and £380.17 per £1,000 of principal amount of the 2023 Notes outstanding (the "Consent Fee"), immediately following the approval of the foregoing Extraordinary Resolution by the requisite Noteholders. The Consent Fee shall be paid to the common depository by wire transfer, and Euroclear and Clearstream, as applicable, will credit the relevant accounts of their participants on the payment date. Payments in respect of Notes not evidenced by Global Notes shall be made by wire transfer, direct deposit or check mailed to the address of the holder entitled thereto as such address shall appear on the register of the Company.

RESOLVES by ordinary quorum an Extraordinary Resolution in accordance with the proviso to paragraph 5 of Schedule 4 of the Fiscal and Paying Agency Agreement to authorize and direct the following:

- (a) authorizes, directs and empowers the Agents to concur in, approve, and execute, and do all such deeds, instruments, acts and things that may be necessary to carry out and give effect to these resolutions;
- (b) sanctions, assents to and approves any necessary or consequential amendment to the Fiscal and Paying Agency Agreement to effect these resolutions; and
- (c) acknowledges that capitalized terms used in these resolutions have the same meanings as those defined in the Fiscal and Paying Agency Agreement, as applicable.

ITEM 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

ITEM 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant

The U.S. Government previously announced that it would establish a warranty program (the "Warranty Program") pursuant to which a separate account would be created and funded with cash contributed by GM and a loan from the U.S. Treasury to ensure the payment for repairs covered by GM's limited warranty obligations in respect of each new vehicle (the "Subject Vehicles") sold to retail customers in the United States and Mexico by GM during GM's restructuring period.

On May 27, 2009, GM entered into Amendment Number Four ("Amendment Four") to the Loan and Security Agreement dated as of December 31, 2008 (as amended, the "Loan Agreement") between GM, as borrower, and the U.S. Treasury, as lender. Amendment Four increased the aggregate maximum amount available for GM to borrow under the Loan Agreement by $360.6 million to $19.76 billion. On May 29, GM borrowed $360.6 million under the Loan Agreement (the "Warranty Advance") and delivered an additional note payable to the U.S. Treasury (the "Additional Note") in a principal amount of $24.1 million as additional compensation for the Warranty Advance, pursuant to the terms of the Warrant Agreement dated as of December 31, 2008 between GM and the U.S. Treasury. The proceeds of the Warranty Advance funded the separate account associated with the Warranty Program that was established by GM Warranty LLC ("GM Warranty"), a new special purpose subsidiary of GM that was formed for purposes of the Warranty Program. Also on May 29, 2009 we made a cash contribution to GM Warranty of $49.2 million.

The Warranty Advance bears an interest rate per annum equal to the three-month LIBOR rate plus 3.5%, and is scheduled to mature 36 months after the end of GM's restructuring period. The Additional Note is due on December 30, 2011, and bears interest, payable quarterly, at a rate per annum equal to the three-month LIBOR rate plus 3.5%. The Warranty Advance and the Additional Note are each subject to the same events of default applicable to all other advances and additional notes under the Loan Agreement, except that a bankruptcy of GM will not cause an automatic acceleration of the Warranty Advance.

GM's obligations under the Warranty Advance are only guaranteed by, and are only secured by the assets of, GM Warranty. This $409.8 million of cash at GM Warranty (comprised of the $360.6 million Warranty Advance and the $49.2 million GM contribution) equals 125% of the costs projected by us to be required to satisfy anticipated claims under the limited warranty issued on the Subject Vehicles during GM's restructuring period. As required by the Loan Agreement, prior to receiving the Warranty Advance, GM provided a statement describing its intended use of the proceeds of the Warranty Advance.

ITEM 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On June 1, 2009, GM and its subsidiaries General Motors Nova Scotia Finance Company ("GM Nova Scotia"), General Motors of Canada Limited ("GM of Canada") and General Motors Nova Scotia Investments Limited entered into a lock up agreement (the "Agreement") with certain holders (the "Participating Holders") of GM Nova Scotia's 8.375% guaranteed notes due December 7, 2015 and 8.875% guaranteed notes due July 10, 2023 issued by GM Nova Scotia which are guaranteed by GM (the "Nova Scotia Notes"). The Agreement provides for contingent settlement of the case Aurelius Capital Partners LP et al v. General Motors Corporation et al, initiated on March 2, 2009 in the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia and for a release of all defendants to that proceeding.

Form 8-K

Under the Agreement, the Participating Holders also agreed to vote in favor of an extraordinary resolution where the holders of Nova Scotia Notes waive all rights and claims against GM Nova Scotia in respect of the intercompany loan obligations in the principal amount of C$1,334,064,000 owed by GM of Canada to GM Nova Scotia. The Participating Holders hold more than two thirds of the aggregate principal amount of each series of Nova Scotia Notes, which is the amount required to pass an extraordinary resolution. The extraordinary resolution is expected to be voted on at a forthcoming meeting of holders of Nova Scotia Notes.

If such extraordinary resolution is successfully passed, GM Nova Scotia will make a cash payment of £366.46 per £1,000 par value of outstanding Nova Scotia Notes due 2015 and £380.17 per £1,000 par value of outstanding Nova Scotia Notes due 2023. The funding for such payment will be provided by GM of Canada and in connection therewith the intercompany loan obligations owed by GM of Canada to GM Nova Scotia will be extinguished. The cash payment will not reduce the principal amount outstanding of the Nova Scotia Notes and the GM guarantee will remain in force.

The Agreement further acknowledges the existence of a deficiency claim in an amount sufficient (if paid in full) for GM Nova Scotia to pay its debts and liabilities, including those with respect to the Nova Scotia Notes, running from GM Nova Scotia to GM, that will not be reduced by the settlement payment. The Agreement further provides that, under certain circumstances, GM will subordinate its claims against GM Nova Scotia to that deficiency obligation.

As part of the foregoing transaction and subject to a confidentiality agreement, the Participating Holders received certain financial information with respect to GM of Canada (the "Subject Financial Information"). GM is furnishing the Subject Financial Information in Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 8-K. This information consists of certain preliminary unaudited financial information with respect to GM of Canada as of and for the year ending December 31, 2008 and certain previously reported and preliminary unaudited financial information of GM of Canada as of and for the year ending December 31, 2007. The Subject Financial Information is prepared in accordance with accounting principals generally accepted in Canada and does not purport to show the financial statements of GM of Canada in accordance with accounting principals generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP") and, therefore, certain information would be different under U.S. GAAP. GM cautions readers not to place undue reliance on the Subject Financial Information. Additionally, the columns not identified as previously reported are preliminary, unaudited information and subject to adjustment. GM does not undertake any duty to update the Subject Financial Information. The furnishing of the information set forth in Exhibit 99.1 is not intended to, and does not, constitute a determination or confirmation as to the materiality or completeness of such information or its adequacy for any purpose.

BODY:

DOW JONES NEWSWIRE

("GM Nova Scotia Unit In Pact To Settle Canada Bondholder Suit," published at 2:58 p.m. EDT, incorrectly stated the principal amount owed by GM of Canada to GM Nova Scotia in the fourth paragraph. A correct version follows.)

General Motors Corp. (GM) said Monday that its Nova Scotia units have entered an agreement to settle a Canadian bondholder suit.

The units, General Motors Nova Scotia Finance Co., General Motors of Canada Ltd., and General Motors Nova Scotia Investments Ltd. have entered into a pact to settle the suit, brought in March, by investment funds including Aurelius Capital Partners LP.

The suit alleged that GM wrongfully pulled about $600 million from a Canadian subsidiary in 2008 to address a growing liquidity problem in the U. S.

In the pact, entered into Monday, the participating holders have also agreed to vote in favor of an "extraordinary resolution" where the holders of Nova Scotia notes waive all rights and claims against GM Nova Scotia in respect of the intercompany loan obligations in the principal amount of $1C.33 billion owed by GM of Canada to GM Nova Scotia.

Those holders hold more than two-thirds of the aggregate principal amount of each series of Nova Scotia notes, which is the amount required to pass an extraordinary resolution.

If the resolution is successfully passed, GM Nova Scotia will make a cash payment of GBP366.46 per GBP1,000 par value of outstanding Nova Scotia notes due 2015 and GBP380.17 per GBP1,000 par value of outstanding Nova Scotia notes due 2023.

GM said the funding for such payment will be provided by GM of Canada and in connection therewith the intercompany loan obligations owed by GM of Canada to GM Nova Scotia will be extinguished.

Furthermore, in the event that the payment of the Consent Fee is successfully challenged by any person in a future proceeding, and, as a result, an amount equal to the Consent Fee has been repaid, the settlement between the Company and General Motors of Canada Limited of the amount owing under the Loan Agreements as contemplated by this transaction shall be null and void and the full amount owing under the Loan Agreements as of the date hereof shall be immediately due and payable according to their terms as they exist as of the date hereof.

Nothing contained in this Extraordinary Resolution shall preclude the Noteholder from pursuing any other claim it may have against the Company, General Motors of Canada Limited, GM Nova Scotia Investments Ltd. or the Guarantor or any of the other debtors in the Chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases") filed as voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11, title 11 of the United States Code, in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, commenced on or about June 1, 2009 which are jointly administered by the Guarantor and certain of its subsidiaries and affiliates who are debtors in the Chapter 11 Cases, in the event that the payment of the Consent Fee is successfully challenged by any person in a future proceeding. For purposes of this Extraordinary Resolution, the "Guarantee" shall mean that certain guarantee of the Notes by the Guarantor included in the Fiscal and Paying Agency Agreement and the Notes.

Nothing contained in this Extraordinary Resolution is in any way intended to, nor shall it in any way operate to, directly or indirectly, limit, waive, impair or restrict, any rights, interests, remedies or claims (whether at law or in equity, and whether now or hereafter existing) which any Noteholder may have against, or to which any Noteholder is due or owed from, the Company in respect of the Notes or the Guarantor in respect of a general unsecured claim to which the 2015 Holders and the 2023 Holders are entitled in the bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings of the Guarantor for the full amount of the outstanding principal, interest and costs due on such Notes by virtue of the Guarantor's Guarantee (the "Guarantee Claim") or the general unsecured claim to which the trustee in bankruptcy of the Company is entitled for contribution for any amounts unpaid to the Company's creditors, namely the amount outstanding under the Notes, the Swap Liability (defined below) and any other liabilities (collectively, a "Deficiency Claim"), in the bankruptcy and insolvency proceedings of the Guarantor. For purposes of clarity, it is understood and agreed that nothing contained in this Extraordinary Resolution shall: (i) release in any respect whatsoever any claim against the Company on the Notes or any claim against the Guarantor on the Guarantee, or (ii) preclude a Noteholder from pursuing any claim it may have against the Guarantor or any of the other debtors in the Chapter 11 Cases or any other party that is not based on such Holder's ownership of Notes.

The Consent Fee payment does not reduce, limit or impair the Notes, the Guarantee Claim or the Deficiency Claim.

The Guarantor confirms that its only claim against the Company is the Swap Liability. If for any reason any portion of the Deficiency Claim is disallowed, the Guarantor agrees that the Swap Liability is subordinated to the prior, indefeasible payment in full of the Notes. In any event, any and all other undisclosed indebtedness, claims, liabilities or obligations of the Company to the Guarantor other than the Swap Liability are subordinated to the prior, indefeasible payment in full of the Notes. To the extent of the subordination provided for herein, the Guarantor agrees that should it receive any payments from the Company or a trustee in bankruptcy of the Company, it will hold such payment in trust and immediately pay over such amounts to the paying agent for the Notes. For purposes of this Extraordinary Resolution, "Swap Liability" shall mean the obligations of the Company to the Guarantor, under currency swap arrangements between the Guarantor and the Company.

HEREBY: "

For the 2015 and 2023 Notes (each series voting separately)

RESOLVES by special quorum an Extraordinary Resolution in accordance with the proviso to paragraph 5 of Schedule 4 of the Fiscal and Paying Agency Agreement to authorize and direct the addition of a new provision at the end of, and forming part of, Condition 6 of Schedule 1 of the Fiscal and Paying Agency Agreement, which also forms a part of the Global Notes representing the 2015 Notes and the 2023 Notes, as follows:

"Certain Claims

Upon the approval of the Extraordinary Resolution at the Meeting and the payment by the Company and the Paying Agent of the Consent Fee to each of the Noteholders in accordance therewith, each Noteholder hereby releases and discharges the defendants in the Nova Scotia Proceeding (and the past and/or present directors, officers, employees, partners, insurers, co-insurers, controlling shareholders, attorneys, advisers, consultants, accountants or auditors, personal or legal representatives, predecessors, successors, parents, subsidiaries, divisions, joint ventures, assigns, spouses, heirs, related and/or affiliated entities of each of them) from all claims and demands that are raised in the proceeding in the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia titled Aurelius Capital Partners, LP v. General Motors Corporation et al, Court File No. HFX No. 308066 (the "Nova Scotia Proceeding"), and agrees to discontinue the Nova Scotia Proceeding on a without costs basis. Nothing contained in this Extraordinary Resolution shall preclude any Noteholder from pursuing any of the claims raised in the Nova Scotia Proceeding against any of the Canadian Entities or the Guarantor or any of the other debtors in the Chapter 11 Cases in the event that the payment of the Consent Fee is successfully challenged by any person in a future proceeding and, as a result, an amount equal to the Consent Fee has been repaid; provided, that, this Extraordinary Resolution precludes each Noteholder from pursuing any of the claims raised in the Nova Scotia Proceeding against any of Neil Macdonald, John Stapleton, Mercedes Michel and Maurita Suttedja (and their respective heirs, administrators and assigns) in the event that the payment of the Consent Fee is successfully challenged by any person in a future proceeding.

Upon the approval of the Extraordinary Resolution at the Meeting and the payment by the Company and the Paying Agent of the Consent Fee to each of the Noteholders in accordance therewith, each Noteholder waives all (and shall cease to have any) rights and claims against the Company in respect of the Loan Agreements (as defined below), including with respect to any compromise or settlement of the loans thereunder, and such Noteholder's rights in the Loan Agreements, and each Noteholder hereby releases and discharges GM Canada (and its past and present officers, directors and employees), Neil Macdonald, John Stapleton, Mercedes Michel and Maurita Suttedja (and their respective heirs, administrators and assigns) from all claims and demands whatsoever, presently known or unknown, which the Noteholders ever had, now have or may hereafter have against them by reason of claims and demands arising from or in connection with those certain loan agreements between the Company and GM Canada each dated as of July 10, 2003 and pursuant to which GM Canada borrowed from the Company the sum of five hundred fifty-five million, eight hundred sixty thousand Canadian dollars (C$555,860,000), and the sum of seven hundred seventy-eight million, two hundred four thousand Canadian dollars (C$778,204,000), respectively (collectively, the "Loan Agreements"), provided that nothing contained in this Extraordinary Resolution shall preclude the Noteholders from pursuing any claim in respect of the parties and claims otherwise released in this paragraph in the event that the payment of the Consent Fee is successfully challenged by any person in a future proceeding and, as a result, an amount equal to the Consent Fee has been repaid. Furthermore, in the event that the payment of the Consent Fee is successfully challenged by any person in a future proceeding, and, as a result, an amount equal to the Consent Fee has been repaid, the settlement between the Company and GM Canada of the amount owing under the Loan Agreements as contemplated by this Transaction shall be null and void and the full amount owing under the Loan Agreements as of the date hereof shall be immediately due and payable according to their terms as they exist as of the date hereof.

Upon the approval of the Extraordinary Resolution at the Meeting and the payment by the Company and the Paying Agent of the Consent Fee to each of the Noteholders in accordance therewith, with respect to any other claim it may have against the Canadian Entities or the Guarantor in its capacity as a holder of the Notes, the Noteholder covenants and agrees not to pursue any claim it may have other than in connection with the advancement of its claim under the Guarantee, the advancement of its claim against GM Nova Scotia in respect of the Notes and the Deficiency Claim (each as defined below). Nothing contained in this Extraordinary Resolution shall preclude the Noteholder from pursuing any other claim it may have against the Canadian Entities or the Guarantor or any of the other debtors in the Chapter 11 Cases in the event that the payment of the Consent Fee is successfully challenged by any person in a future proceeding. For purposes of this Extraordinary Resolution, the "Guarantee" shall mean that certain guarantee of the Notes by the Guarantor included in the Fiscal and Paying Agency Agreement and the Notes.

Nothing contained in this Extraordinary Resolution is in any way intended to, nor shall it in any way operate to, directly or indirectly, limit, waive, impair or restrict, any rights, interests, remedies or claims (whether at law or in equity, and whether now or hereafter existing) which any Noteholder may have against, or to which any Noteholder is due or owed from, the Company in respect of the Notes or the Guarantor in respect of the Guarantee Claim or the Deficiency Claim (as such terms are defined in the Lock-up Agreement). It is hereby expressly acknowledged, agreed and confirmed that that (i) the Deficiency Claim is a valid and enforceable claim of the Company and shall be enforceable against the Guarantor as allowed pre-petition general unsecured claims (the "Allowed Claims") to the fullest extent permitted under applicable laws, (ii) the Notes are valid and enforceable claims to the Noteholders and shall be enforceable against the Company in their full amount, and (iii) the Guarantee Claim is a valid and enforceable claim of the Noteholders and shall be enforceable against the Guarantor as Allowed Claims to the fullest extent permitted under applicable laws.

For purposes of clarity, it is understood and agreed that nothing contained in this Extraordinary Resolution shall: (i) release in any respect whatsoever any claim against the Company on the Notes or any claim against the Guarantor on the Guarantee, or (ii) preclude a Noteholder from pursuing any claim it may have against the Guarantor or any of the other debtors in the Chapter 11 Cases or any other Party that is not based on such Holder's ownership of Notes.

The Consent Fee payment does not reduce, limit or impair the Notes, the Guarantee Claim or the Deficiency Claim.

The Guarantor confirms that its only claim against the Company is the Swap Liability. If for any reason any portion of the Deficiency Claim is disallowed, the Guarantor agrees that the Swap Liability is subordinated to the prior, indefeasible payment in full of the Notes. In any event, any and all other undisclosed indebtedness, claims, liabilities or obligations of the Company to the Guarantor other than the Swap Liability are subordinated to the prior, indefeasible payment in full of the Notes. To the extent of the subordination provided for herein, the Guarantor agrees that should it receive any payments from the Company or a trustee in bankruptcy of the Company, it will hold such payment in trust and immediately pay over such amounts to the paying agent for the Notes. For purposes of this Extraordinary Resolution, "Swap Liability" shall mean the obligations of the Company to the Guarantor, under currency swap arrangements between the Guarantor and the Company.

The Guarantor shall not assert any right of set-off in respect of the Deficiency Claim.

RESOLVES by special quorum an Extraordinary Resolution in accordance with Schedule 4 of the Fiscal and Paying Agency Agreement to pay, subject to the approval of the foregoing Extraordinary Resolution by the requisite Noteholders, an amount equal to £366.46 per £1,000 of principal amount of the 2015 Notes outstanding and £380.17 per £1,000 of principal amount of the 2023 Notes outstanding (the "Consent Fee"), immediately following the approval of the foregoing Extraordinary Resolution by the requisite Noteholders. The Consent Fee shall be paid to the common depository by wire transfer, and Euroclear and Clearstream, as applicable, will credit the relevant accounts of their participants on the payment date. Payments in respect of Notes not evidenced by Global Notes shall be made by wire transfer, direct deposit or check mailed to the address of the holder entitled thereto as such address shall appear on the register of the Company.

RESOLVES by ordinary quorum an Extraordinary Resolution in accordance with the proviso to paragraph 5 of Schedule 4 of the Fiscal and Paying Agency Agreement to authorize and direct the following:

- (a) authorizes, directs and empowers the Agents to concur in, approve, and execute, and do all such deeds, instruments, acts and things that may be necessary to carry out and give effect to these resolutions;
- (b) sanctions, assents to and approves any necessary or consequential amendment to the Fiscal and Paying Agency Agreement to effect these resolutions; and
- (c) acknowledges that capitalized terms used in these resolutions have the same meanings as those defined in the Fiscal and Paying Agency Agreement, as applicable.

USD 450,000,000

1. Promise to Pay. FOR VALUE RECEIVED, the undersigned, General Motors of Canada Limited (the "Borrower"), hereby unconditionally promises to pay to the order of General Motors Corporation (the "Lender") and its successors or assigns, the principal amount of Four Hundred and Fifty Million United States Dollars (USD 450,000,000) (the "Principal Amount"), together with interest on the unpaid principal amount of this Note outstanding from the time, and in the manner provided herein and in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the trust agreement dated May 29, 2009 between the Borrower and the Lender (the "Trust Agreement").
2. Use of funds: The Borrower covenants that the Principal Amount shall be held in trust on the terms and conditions set forth in the Trust Agreement.
3. Prepayment of the Principal Amount. The Borrower shall be entitled to prepay all or any portion of the Principal Amount outstanding and any accrued and unpaid interest pursuant to this Note without notice, bonus or penalty.
4. Interest. The Borrower shall pay to the Lender interest on the Principal Amount outstanding from and after June 15, 2009 until the Note is repaid in full to the Lender, both before and after demand, default and judgment (except to the extent waived by the Lender) at a rate of 5.00% per annum (which amount is three hundred basis points (3.00%) above LIBOR, where LIBOR means the greater of (a) 2.00% and (b) the rate (adjusted for statutory reserve requirements for eurocurrency liabilities) for Eurodollar deposits for a period equal to three months appearing on Reuters Screen LIBOR01 Page at 11:00 a.m. on May 28, 2009, the "Interest Rate"). Interest shall be calculated and accrue daily on the outstanding Principal Amount and when not in default shall be payable in arrears on January 15 and July 15 of each year, with the first interest payment due and payable on January 15, 2010 and after default shall be payable on demand. Interest will be calculated on the basis of a year of 365 days (or 366 days as the case may be) for the actual number of days elapsed.

Any principal and interest not paid when due (whether at scheduled maturity, by reason of acceleration, or otherwise) will bear interest from and including the date due but excluding the date paid in full at a yield per annum equal to the Interest Rate plus a per annum amount of 1%, such interest to be payable on demand and on any repayment of principal.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Note, in no event may the total of all interest or other charges payable under this Note that are or could be held to be in the nature of interest exceed the maximum rate permitted to be charged under applicable law. Should the Lender receive any payment that is or would be in excess of that permitted to be charged under such applicable law, then such payment will be deemed to have been made in error and shall automatically be applied to reduce the principal sum outstanding under this Note.

5. Maturity. The Principal Amount outstanding and accrued and unpaid interest are due and payable on May 29, 2012 or otherwise in accordance with the terms of the Trust Agreement, unless the Borrower and Lender agree in writing to extend the Note beyond that date.
